From The Desk of Msgr. Matthew Mitas:

REMEMBER THAT NOVEMBER IS THE MONTH OF THE HOLY SOULS IN PURGATORY!

THE ELECTION

By all means, vote. It's not my place to tell you how to vote. It is my duty, however, to point out to you that one of the major political parties running candidates for offices in this election is 100% committed to the promotion of what Pope St. John Paul II called the "Culture of Death" (i.e., abortion [and particularly its most heinous and barbaric form: partial birth abortion], euthanasia, "gay marriage", and the generous funding of the diabolical "Planned Parenthood") and the persecution of all who fight against it. Before you vote, just ask yourself whether or not you want to become an accomplice to those crimes.

BEYOND SUNDAY

The final stage of this massive, diocesan-wide collection begins today in our parish. You know what it is. 40% of the money donated stays here; the rest goes to the Archdiocese. Although we haven't heard anything so far about the ultimate destiny of our Catholic schools here in the Northeast County Deanery, I know this for sure: St. Angela Merici will still have Catholic school children that will need to be supported in whatever Catholic school they attend, and it's our responsibility to provide that support. So rest assured that the money that our parish receives will absolutely, 100% go to help the Catholic kids of our parish attend the Catholic school of their choice. Not one penny for non-Catholics, not one penny for a non-Catholic school. Please give us your support.

MY CATECHISM CLASS

This distinguished group of Catholic scholars will assemble once again this Tuesday, Nov. 8, at the usual time (7:15PM) but in a different place. We'll be meeting in the lunchroom, since our holy Vincentians will have their regular meeting in the parish meeting room that night. All distinguished Catholic scholars of every stripe are welcome!

150 CLUB

It's still not too late to join. Just stop by the office for a form (or you could even just write us a check and put it in an envelope without the form; just make sure that the envelope, the check, or both are marked "150 club") and put it in the collection basket. It's $150 for one person and $200 for a couple. Come be one of the One-Fifty!

REMEMBERING THE DEAD

November being the month of the Holy Souls in Purgatory, I remind you of our obligation in Christian charity to do the spiritual work of mercy of praying for them. A beautiful Catholic tradition is to make a family pilgrimage to the graves of those who have preceded us in death to decorate their graves and offer prayers on their behalf. Why not take a Sunday this month to do that?

QUIZ-A-CATHOLIC

Since this Wednesday (Nov. 9) is the feast of the anniversary of the dedication of the church of St. John Lateran in Rome, let's see how much you know about it; it is the mother church of all Christendom:

1. Who is "St. John Lateran"?
2. What is its special place and function in the papacy?
3. How long has the Church owned that property?
4. How did the Church acquire that property?
5. When was the church dedicated?
6. Have any ecumenical councils of the Church been held there? If so, how many?
7. Why did the popes move to Avignon from 1304-1379?
8. Why do the popes no longer live at the Lateran?
9. How many popes are buried in the Lateran Archbasilica?
10. What two great relics are housed in the baldachin above the main altar?

ANSWERS: 1. There is no such person; it is actually the church of Christ the Savior, dedicated to the two saints John; the Baptist and the Evangelist, built of the estate of the ancient Lateran family 2. It is actually the pope's cathedral (most people are surprised to learn that St. Peter's is not the cathedral of the patriarchal See of Rome) 3. Being the very first piece of real estate the Catholic Church has ever owned, it our oldest land possession, dating from c. 320AD 4. The Laterans were proscribed by the Emperor Nero, who confiscated heir property (after he killed them). Eventually, the Lateran Estate fell into the hands of the Emperor Constantine's wife, and then Constantine donated the land to Pope St. Sylvester I for the specific purpose of building both the basilica and his own residence, the "Lateran Palace" 5. Nov. 9, 324AD 6. There have been five "Lateran Councils"; in 1123, 1189, 1179, 1215, and 1512-1517 (Vatican I and Vatican II would have been held there, except that it wasn't big enough) 7. Because in 1304 a Frenchman was elected pope and he found the ancient Lateran Palace to be a dump like the rest of Rome (which, at the time, they were), and so he moved to Avignon, which, though now situated in France, was part of the Papal States at the time. All the other popes after him also preferred Avignon to Rome, until St. Catherine of Sienna got the pope to return to Rome 8. Because when the pope returned to Rome in 1379, the Lateran Palace was an even bigger dump than it was 75 years earlier, so he built a new place for himself at the Vatican, where the popes have resided ever since 9. 18 are known (some others may be buried there, but it is unsure), the last being Pope Leo XIII (1903) 10. the skulls of Ss. Peter and Paul (which were reportedly removed and desecrated by the Protestants in the great sacking of Rome in 1527, but were eventually restored)

QUOTES OF THE WEEK

"If a priest is determined not to lose his soul as soon as any disorder arises in his parish, he must trample underfoot all human considerations as well as the fear or contempt and hatred (from) his people. He must not allow anything to bar his way in the discharge of (his) duty, even were he certain of being murdered on coming down from the pulpit. A pastor who wants to do his duty must keep his sword in his hand at all times." - St. John Vianney, Patron Saint of

From The Desk of:

Mrs. Mary Ann Kauffman, Principal

We enjoyed a few days off because of a long and rewarding day. Last Friday we were here from 7:30 AM to 8:30PM. We enjoyed conversations with our parents. It was Parent/Teacher Conferences. Since the teachers worked all day on Friday, we enjoyed a day off this past Monday. Then the next day we celebrated All Saints Day! Therefore, we had four days off in a row, it was well deserved and enjoyed by all!!

We also celebrated Grandparents/Special People Day on Friday! We hosted our Grandparents, we treated them to a light breakfast, entertainment from our students and prayers of thanksgiving for all their wisdom!

A parishioner came up to me the other day and said, "You have a difficult job." I do not have a difficult job -- I have a job made in heaven. Where else could you work and be able to talk about Christ continually throughout the day! We have wonderful students who try continually to live as Christ with their words and actions. We do not have fights, do we have name calling, etc., sure! I did not say we were perfect. We have fantastic teachers who keep Christ present throughout the day. Then we have this wonderful parish of St. Angela Merici supporting us!!

Our Catholic population is low but our Christian population is 100%. Our population that is not Catholic are Church going parents. They attend many of the Churches that surround our parish. They do believe in Christ.

Please keep us in your prayers as we continually converse with God and give our best to create saints in each of our students and parents. We are a proud community!

God is Good!
