From The Desk of Msgr. Matthew Mitas:

REMEMBER THAT JULY IS THE MONTH OF THE MOST PRECIOUS BLOOD OF JESUS!

IF YOU ARE A PARISHIONER FROM OUR LADY OF THE ROSARY...

...first of all, please forgive me if I refer to your former parish as “Loretto” (I’m a veteran of three Northeast County parishes and I tend to live in the past!), but, second of all, WELCOME!

We’re glad to have you with us! I ask two things of you: first, please register in our parish (just call or stop by the parish offices [located right next to the church, on the south side, 838-6565 from 8:00AM-4:00PM, Mon-Fri]) and, second, if you were a lector, Eucharistic minister, usher, sacristan, choir member, etc. and would like to continue serving in that capacity, please let us know. We’ll get you in touch with the people you need to contact and, again, we would be most appreciative of your service!

GLORY BE TO THE FATHER...

Our parish will once again host the special Mass for the praise and glory of God the Father on the first Sunday of August which, this year, falls on August 7. It will start at 1:30PM and the whole Archdiocese is invited. It will be celebrated in addition to the usual Sunday schedule.

LOUDES/ROME/FATIMA/ASSISI 2017

As I wrote last week, it looks like we’re going to have a pretty large contingent of pilgrims in the fall of 2017. So, in order to get a good idea of what people want to do (and what is feasible), how much it will cost, the best dates, etc., I’ve scheduled an organizational meeting for the evening of Wednesday, July 20 (7:00PM in the lunchroom). If you can’t make it, you can still go on the trip and if you do come, you’re not obliged to go. Our travel agent, Jeff Stoll (of Sacred Heart Parish), will be on hand to take in your concerns and answer any and all questions. I’ve just re-applied to update my passport; I’m looking forward to a great spiritual experience!

PIANO RECITAL

It’s this (Sunday) afternoon at 2:00PM in the lunchroom (previously I said it would be in the gym, but the venue has officially been moved). You’ll have a great time and you’ll be giving a wonderful young man a boost in what has already been a successful career.

OLIVE WOOD CRUCIFIX

As I mentioned last week, I had our top local liturgical artist come out and take a look at our new crucifix for the purpose of figuring out how best to display it in our parish church. She recommended (and I agreed) that we fabricate a wood panel comparable to the one behind the crucifix in the front of church and suspend it above the doors where we all depart church. She’s working on the design now and I hope that it will be in place, beautifully, in the next month or two. My thanks, again, to you all for the overwhelmingly generous response to this project!

QUIZ-A-CATHOLIC : The Catholic faith has insinuated itself into our culture in many ways, not the least of which is through popular expressions which have developed over the years. This quiz is based on turns of phrase that are based on the lives of the saints and the familiar veneration of them. I will describe what the term phrase means, and it’s up to you to give me the term and the saint who inspired it:

1. Originally derived from the cheap and gaudy decorations worn and used at the annual fair on this saint’s feast, it now means anything that is ostentatiously overblown.
2. This archaic expression refers to the runt of a litter of pigs.
3. The disease of chorea is more popularly known as this.
4. Another archaism, it is another name for an eider duck.
5. A circular firework that sparks as it spins.
6. This particular kind of nut is so named because it ripens on this saint’s feast.
7. This old expression refers to someone who needs to lose a few pounds.
8. This breed of large dog is famous for the aid it gives to snowbound travelers in the Alps.
9. This expression refers to any Monday holiday, when the work week starts on Tuesday.
10. This expression refers to a state of miserable poverty

CONTINUED

Parish Activities:

CONTINUED

ANSWERS: 1. "Tawdry" derives from "St. Audrey" (if you say it in the manner of the Brit's, i.e., real fast and running the words together, it comes out "tawdry" 2. "Tantony pig", after St. Anthony the Abbot 3. "St. Vitus dance" 4. "St. Cuthbert's duck" 5. "(St.) Catherine's wheel" 6. "Filbert" (after St. Philibert) 7. "(St.) Bartholomew pig" (after the large pig usually roasted at the festival on St. Bartholomew's Day, giving rise to simile: "e's as fat as Bartholomew's Pig!") 8. "St. Bernard" (the Augustinian Canons at the monastery of St. Bernard in Switzerland had trained them) 9. "St. Crispin's holiday" (St. Crispin is the patron of shoemakers, who, in England, always took Monday off) 10. "St. Francis' distemper" (St. Francis of Assisi, of course, preached and chose to live radical poverty, as did his followers, the Franciscans; this refers to the state of radical poverty imposed upon one by sad fate and reversal of fortune)

QUOTES OF THE WEEK

(One of my all-time favorite movies is the old John Wayne film, The Comancheros, co-starring Stuart Whitman, as "Mon-sewer" Paul Regret. The Duke plays Ranger Jake Cutter, who is charged with bringing Regret, who was wrongly convicted of murder and sentenced to hang, to justice. Through numerous adventures, Cutter comes to realize that Regret is a good man and probably wrongly sentenced, but, nonetheless, feels a strong sense of obligation to do his duty. Finally capturing Regret and, leading him back to face his fate, Jake has this exchange with him:)

CUTTER: Let him make a run for it, I'd say to myself.

REGRET: And then what would you say?

CUTTER: And then I'd say back to myself, "You can't let him run. You swore an oath when they put that badge on you."

REGRET: And that's important to you?

CUTTER: I said I swore an oath!

REGRET: Words!

CUTTER: Mon-sewer, words are what men live by, words they say and mean...you must have had a real careless upbringing!

(What I love about this is that it puts so simply but directly what is the main failing of our culture as I see it, namely, that so many people live lives devoid of principle and purpose, committed to nothing worthwhile and unwilling to sacrifice for anything decent or holy. Many in our society, indeed, receive a most "careless upbringing".)

For 40 years Brother Andre Bessette of the Congregation of Holy Cross welcomed people at the door and became known as a miraculous healer. This is a beautiful feature film, written by Jean Claude LeBrecque, that re-creates the story of St. André Bessette's life as he speaks with his niece who is discerning her vocation. It tells of Brother André's struggles and the perseverance it took to remain faithful to God's call and fulfill His will. Stars Marc Legault and Sylvie Ferlatte.

Popcorn and soda will be provided -
See you on Friday night!

Daniel Kuehler, our parish pianist for 12 years, will give a benefit concert at St. Angela Merici on Sunday, July 10th at 2:00 pm. He has received his Bachelors of Music in piano performance at UMSL and is currently pursuing a Masters in piano performance at the Catholic University of America in Washington D.C. This summer, Daniel has been invited to attend two music festivals in Vienna and Xian, China. Both of these festivals present rich opportunities to take lessons from and perform with internationally acclaimed pianists at prestigious venues. ### S.A.M. St. Vincent de Paul Society Semi-Annual Report

In an effort to be good stewards of the contributions made to the SVDP Society, we continue to make home visits in teams of two Vincentians to assess the needs of our clients.

- From Jan. 1 to July 1, our members made 87 home visits. There were 351 persons in the households that were visited.
- The Vincentian hours involved in those home visits were 222. In addition, there are many phone hours involved.
- Assistance was given to 42 families to avoid Laclede disconnection.
- Assistance was given to 57 families to avoid Ameren disconnection.
- Assistance was given to 4 families to avoid MO-AM water disconnection.
- In addition to utility assistance we were able to help people with Thrift Store vouchers to help with clothing and household furnishings. We were able to get these vouchers because of the terrific response April 2/3 when the SVDP truck was in St. Angela's parking lot, collecting clothing and household goods.
- We continue to be one of the largest contributors to the TEAM food pantry with our monthly Food Drives. We also take food boxes to some of our clients. When store and gas gift cards are donated, we are able to distribute those also.
- We were able to help 9 families through the Beds for Neighbors SVDP Program.
- The LDI prescription program enabled us to help 3 families with medications.
- So far this year, we disbursed $14,732 donated by the generous parishioners at St. Angela Merici in the parish SVDP envelopes, the brown envelopes at the back of church and the Men's Club supper.

Through the Main Council Office of the SVDP Society we were able to utilize funds from other resources such as, the Rise-n-Shine fund raiser, Community Action, Heat Up, $More, the SVDP North District and "twinning" with other parishes' SVDP Societies and the Marian Foundation.

We are very grateful to the parishioners at St. Angela Merici for their financial contributions, the Food Drive donations and the Spring clothing and household collection.
