From The Desk of Msgr. Matthew Mitas:

REMEMBER THAT AUGUST IS THE MONTH OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT AND SEPTEMBER IS THE MONTH OF THE SEVEN DOLORS OF MARY!

OUR OLIVE WOOD CRUCIFIX...

...is, even now, as I write, being prepped for its ultimate installation in our parish church. It will be mounted on a wood background that will match the woodwork in the sanctuary and be placed in the corner above the interior exit doors (the ones that open up into the vestibule) so that the two crucifixes of church will face each other, and you will see Our Savior on His Cross as you enter and as you leave. I hope to have it up by the end of this month.

CATECHISM CLASS

My discussion group on the catechism of the Catholic Church will resume this month on Tuesday evening, Sep. 20 (after devotions, in the parish meeting room). I call it “Catechism Class”, but in reality, it’s a discussion group about every aspect of the faith; the Catechism is the focal point. We discuss whatever topics come up and when the discussion breaks down, we go back to the Catechism and stir things up again. It’s as informal as it is informational and absolutely everyone is welcome. That means that it’s not necessary that you’ve sat in with us before. Some come and find out what’s going on in our great Catholic Church!

R.C.I.A.

Our convert classes are starting up soon. If you know of anyone (including yourself) who would like to become Catholic, let me know ASAP.

QUIZ-A-CATHOLIC

This weekend marks the beginning of the month of September, dedicated in our Catholic piety to the “dolors” (or, “sorrows”) of the Blessed Mother. It will be your task to answer these questions based on this long-standing Catholic devotion:

1. What given name for girls is derived from the sorrows of Our Lady?
2. The feast of Our Lady of Sorrows occurs this month; on what date?
3. There is a special sequence for the feast of Our Lady’s Dolors, but is now mostly used as a hymn with the Stations of the Cross; what is it?
4. Why was the feast’s date chosen?
5. What religious order is associated with the origins of this devotion?
6. In what century and for what specific purpose was this devotion given a feast day?
7. Name the Seven Dolors of the B.V.M.

ANSWERS: 1. Dolores 2. September 15 3. The Stabat Mater (“At the Cross, her station keeping...”) 4. To connect it with the feast of the day before (9/14), the Feast of the Holy Cross, and it’s the last day of the Octave of her Nativity (9/8) 5. The Servites (13th c.) 6. In the 15th c., to expiate the sins of the followers of the notorious heretic, John Hus 7. The Prophecy of Simeon (that a sword would pierce her heart), the Flight into Egypt, Losing Jesus in the Temple when He was 12, Meeting Jesus on the way to Calvary (the 4th station), Standing at the Foot of the Cross, the Removal from the Cross, the Burial of Christ

QUOTES OF THE WEEK

“The new hypocrisy consists in pretending that nothing is wrong when everything is all wrong.” - Joseph Sobran

“The human mind is not capable of grasping the universe. We are like a little child entering a huge library. The walls are covered to the ceilings with books in many different tongues. The child knows that someone must have written these books. He does not know who or how. He does not understand the languages in which they are written. But the child notes a definite plan in the arrangement of the books...a mysterious order which he does not comprehend, but only dimly suspects.” - Albert Einstein

“I find it as difficult to understand a scientist who does not acknowledge the presence of a superior rationality behind the existence of the universe as it is to comprehend a theologian who would deny the existence of science. And there is certainly no scientific reason why God cannot retain the same relevance in our modern world that He held before we began probing His creation with telescope, cyclotron, and space vehicles.” - Wernher von Braun

Apostolate of Spiritual Motherhood for the Sanctification of Priests

In response to the request by the Congregation for the Clergy, we work in the Archdiocese of St. Louis to:
 ~ INFORM the laity and clergy about the call to spiritual maternity for the strengthening and sanctification of our priests through Eucharistic Adoration and reparation, and
 ~ FORM WOMEN to take on, and grow in, the role of spiritual mothers for priests by; conforming to the Blessed Virgin Mary, embracing the will of God in all circumstances, striving for holiness and self-offering, through prayer - especially in Holy Mass and Eucharistic Adoration - and through the offering of their praise and joys, daily duties and suffering, for the sake of priests.

With the blessing of Msgr. Mitas, this apostolate will be coming to St. Angela Merici starting Thursday, Sept. 8th at 9am. We will meet to pray a Holy Hour for the Sanctification of Priests and for the increase in priestly vocations through the recitation of the Rosary, litany and other prayers. As Holy Thursday was the day chosen by Christ to initiate the priesthood, we will meet to pray for our priests and for vocations every Thursday at 9am in front of the statue of the Blessed Mother. Holy Hour prayers and the weekly intentions will be provided, and optional head coverings will be available. Now more than ever, we need good and holy men to answer God's call to the priesthood, and we need to pray for the men who already serve Him as priests. If you have any questions, please contact Agnes Bullock at 314-716-3204 or via email at DachsiesWithMoxieMama@gmail.com.

Ladies Club: Please join us for our first meeting of the year on September 7th at 6:30pm, in the Meeting Room. The Ladies Club is open to all women of the parish. Please call Carole at 830-4129 if you have any questions.

8th Grade Respect Life Creative Writing Contest

Earlier this year, the Archdiocesan Respect Life Apostolate and the St. Angela Merici Respect Life Committee sponsored their annual creative writing contests for all 8th graders. The subject was chastity and how this virtue relates to LIFE issues. The 8th grade students of SAM participated in these contests. They created letters, essays, poems, and prayers. Two Honorable Mention awards were given to: Chloe Grant, and Seun Obanigba. Congratulations

Prayer to God by Seun Obanigba

Dear God,

Help me to realize that chastity is important in my life. Help me to let your light shine in me. Lord, I want to follow your law and have a better relationship with you. Help me to show others that the gift of chastity is important and that abortion is not the solution and murder in your eyes. Guide me to the right path to have true holiness. Help me to have true holiness by following your law: by not having an abortion and living a chaste life.

Help me to never have the guilt of taking a life away. Help me to follow your law of being married before having a child. Help everyone to see that living a chaste life helps our health physically, mentally, and spiritually. Living a chaste life helps anyone's baby to have a less risk of a birth defect. Lord, show people that even with a defect that the baby is still a gift from you.

Lord, give people the strength to say no to abortion. Lord, my true happiness begins with going to heaven by living a chaste life. Give me the strength to help everyone to see that abortion does not end with happiness instead it ends with pain, stress, and depression. Living a chaste life helps us from knowing what abortion really is. Help the doctors to see that they are taking part of a murder. Lord, help others to see that as well. Let the gift of chastity to give me a life with true holiness, good health in all ways, even everlasting happiness. Amen.

Letter to Daughter by Chloe Grant

Dearest Daughter,

You're my little girl. I love you so much. There are a lot of things in this world that are difficult to understand, but I pray that you will remain faithful to God and your future partner. I hope that you will live the virtue of chastity for your entire life, as it will protect you from abortion as well as bless you with true holiness, true happiness, and true health.

Living the virtue of chastity will bless you with true holiness. When you are married to someone you devote your entire life to that person because you believe they are valuable. You should respect your future partner as well as yourself enough to wait to have sex. Waiting until marriage to have sex makes the relationship with your partner as strong as it can be. Waiting will also make your relationship with God extremely strong because are following His law.

Living chaste also blesses you with true happiness. You will be able to live a life knowing that you have not infected anyone with a sexually transmitted disease and no one has infected you. Waiting until you are married to have sex will prevent you from the fear of becoming pregnant. Being pregnant on your own can be very terrifying and that fear can drive you to having an abortion. Getting an abortion can haunt you for your entire life as you will be filled with the guilt and regret of killing an innocent child.

True health will keep you and your family safe from sexually transmitted diseases. Staying chaste throughout your life will eliminate the risk of you getting sexually transmitted diseases and protect you from becoming pregnant outside of marriage. When you get married, you and your partner should be open to the birth of children. Keeping sex within the boundaries of marriage will prevent your future children from being born with a disease that could have been given to you or your spouse through a sexually transmitted disease. I hope that you will make responsible and educated choices when you're older.

Yours Truly, Mom
