From The Desk of Msgr. Matthew Mitas:

REMEMBER THAT NOVEMBER IS THE MONTH OF THE HOLY SOULS IN PURGATORY AND DECEMBER IS THE MONTH OF THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION!

THE END OF THE YEAR OF GRACE, 2017

With today's feast of Christ the King, the Year of Grace 2017 comes to an end. Next Sunday will be the First Sunday of Advent, and with it, the Year of Grace 2018 commences. The "Year of Grace" refers to our Catholic calendar of feasts and seasons, by which the Church enables us not just to remember, but, more important, to re-live the events that saved us. Next week we will join those unhappy souls who were born in Old Testament times and who could only hope for a Savior as they watch and pray for Him to come and give them a way out of the evil and wickedness of their lives in this world. Throughout Advent's four weeks we will pray the prayers of their longing and hear the prophecies which sustained them, all leading up to the great feast of the Nativity of the Messiah. It will be, for us, a special time of reflection and taking inventory of our lives, of confessing our sins and spiritual renewal. One very concrete and specific way of doing that is by taking part in...

...ADVENT VESPERS

There's not a better way to keep the Advent season by, in addition to daily Mass and going to Confession, taking part in the Sunday Vespers. Celebrated in the evenings of the Sundays of Advent (with the exception this year of the last Sunday which, being Christmas Eve, will be celebrated instead on Thursday, Dec. 21). Our adult and children's choirs will chant the prophecies which foretold Our Savior's coming and we will fortify ourselves with the praise of God Almighty. Let everybody know that they're welcome to join us!

PARISH PICTURE BOOK

They wrap it up this Tuesday. If you haven't made your appointment, hurry up and sign up!

THE MONTH OF THE HOLY SOULS

In these last few days of November, take time to pray for the dead, but most of all, make a resolution to continue to do so. It's probably the most Catholic thing you can do, inasmuch as it is a concrete expression of our belief in the existence of life after death as it is lived by the souls in purgatory, and an exercise of that singular charity that Christ commanded us to hold.

UPCOMING EVENTS

- December 3, 10, 17 & 21: Vespers for the Sundays of Advent in preparation for Christmas (note that the first three are on Sunday, but since the fourth Sunday is Christmas Eve, the last one will be on Thursday, Dec. 21). Starts at 7:00PM (lasts about half an hour).

- December 5 & 19: Next Catechism Class (in the parish meeting room; all are welcome!)

- December 12 (Tuesday): Mexican food night to honor Our Lady of Guadalupe! Ole! (tentative)

- HOLY DAYS OF OBLIGATION THIS MONTH:

Immaculate Conception: Mass on Thursday, Dec. 7 at 7:00PM, and Friday, Dec. 8 at 6:30 & 8:00AM

Features:

CONTINUED

Christmas: Masses on Sunday, Dec. 24 at 5:00 & 10:00PM, and on Monday, Dec. 25 at 8:00 & 10:00AM

(Please note: Monday, Jan. 1 is NOT a holy day of obligation this year, so there will be only one Mass for New Year's Day, on Monday, Jan. 1, at 9:00AM)

- (TBD): Presentation of the pictures from our Lourdes/Fatima/Assisi/Rome pilgrimage. We're going to have a public showing of these photos for any who might want to see them; when the pictures are formatted and ready, I'll let you know.

-(TBD): Pilgrimage to the EWTN Network complex in Alabama. We're working out the details now, but it should wind up being a 3-day sojourn by bus for our parishioners who would like to see and experience this vibrant and vital exercise of American Catholicism. As I've indicated, we have nothing planned, not even the dates for the pilgrimage, but most likely, it will be next spring. I expect it will cost around $350.

QUOTE OF THE WEEK

"If you want a vision of the future, imagine a boot stamping on a human face - forever!" - George Orwell (this was written when Communist totalitarianism was in the ascendant; when asked how this horrible fate for mankind might be averted, Orwell simply said, "Don't let it happen.")
