From The Desk of Msgr. Matthew Mitas:

REMEMBER THAT DECEMBER IS THE MONTH OF THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION!

MASSES OF CHRISTMAS AND NEW YEAR

With Christmas being tomorrow (Monday), the Mass schedule is a bit skewed. We will, of course, have the usual weekend Mass schedule, but on Sunday, there will also be the two Masses of Christmas Eve (the “Vigil” Mass at 5:00PM and the 10:00PM “Midnight Mass”), and then on Monday (Christmas Day) we will have the “Mass at Dawn” at 8:00AM and the “Mass During the Day” at 10:00AM.

January 1, the Feast of the Divine Maternity of Our Lady, is not a holy day of obligation this year. Subsequently, we will not have an evening Mass on Sunday (New Year’s Eve), and, following our parish custom for national holidays, we will have just one Mass on New Year’s Day, at 9:00AM.

PILGRIMS ASSEMBLE!

That includes would-be pilgrims as well! Come join us as we reminisce about our pilgrimage to the Marian shrines and Italy last October and share with us the joy and graces that were imparted and received. There will be a “slide show” of photographs from our trip in the lunchroom on Boxing Day, i.e., this Tuesday, Dec. 26, after the 7:00PM Devotions. All are welcome and free refreshments (sorry; no fruitcake!).

UPCOMING EVENTS

January 2: My catechism class resumes, in the parish meeting room after the 7:00PM Devotions.

January 27: Feast of St. Angela Merici. We will have our big Italian Food Night to honor her!

-(TBD): Pilgrimage to the EWTN Network complex in Alabama. We’re working out the details now, but it should wind up being a 3 or 4-day sojourn (with an overnight stop in between) by bus for our parishioner’s who would like to see and experience this vibrant and vital exercise of American Catholicism. As I’ve indicated, we have nothing planned, not even the dates for the pilgrimage, but most likely, it will be next spring. I expect it will cost around $350.

QUIZ-A-CATHOLIC

This being Christmas week, let’s have this one on that great feast itself:

1. Why do we celebrate Jesus’ Nativity on December 25?
2. What is “Yule”?
3. Who were the joy-killing Scrooges of the 17th c. who outlawed Christmas?
4. When and where was the first “Midnight Mass” celebrated?
5. Why was it celebrated at midnight?
6. What’s the difference between a “hymn” and a “carol”?
7. What do these popular carols all have in common: “It Came Upon the Midnight Clear”, “O Little Town of Bethlehem”, and “We Three Kings of Orient Are”?
8. What is “Noel” and where does the word come from?
9. What nationality has given us the Christmas tree?
10. What is mistletoe?

ANSWERS: 1. Of course it is possible that Jesus actually was born on December 25 (it’s a 1-in-365.25 likelihood), and many of the early fathers of the Church (including the great Chrysostom!) believed that that actually was the case. The Roman Church, however, when it declared Dec. 25 to be the Feast of Our Lord’s Nativity in 330AD, admitted that Jesus’ actual birthday was unknown. Dec. 25 had been, up till that point, the pagan feast of the “Unconquered Sun”, aka, “The Birthday of the Sun”, celebrated with lots of pagan-style partying which the Church could not suppress. By replacing the pagan feast with the Christian one, the Church allowed the festivities to continue, but with a new focus and meaning (and less paganizing!). After all, Scripture calls Jesus the “Sun of Justice”; what better day to celebrate the birth of the Sun than the “Birthday of the Sun”? Having done that, the Church made it clear that it was a completely different celebration, with no paganizing allowed! 2. This old Nordic word refers either to the month of December or the Winter Solstice (it was also a pagan feast among the Germanic peoples) 3. The infamous Puritans, who were trying to “purify” the Church of England from all its Roman “impurities” 4. At the church of St. Mary Major in Rome, in the 5th c. (St. Mary Major is the site where the Manger of Bethlehem is preserved as a holy relic) 5. Because there's a pious legend that that was the hour of Jesus' Birth (don't ask me why our "Midnight Mass" is at 10:00PM!) 6. They're both songs sung in church, but traditionally, "hymns" were very solemn and "carols" were simple, festive, playful, and always in the vernacular 7. All were written/composed by American (Protestant) clergymen 8. It's French for "Christmas", probably a corruption of the Latin, natalis ("birth") 9. The Germans (16th c.) 10. It's a pedal affliction peculiar to priests and others who use or hold the book of Mass prayers, whose name is the "Roman Missal": athletes get "athletes' foot" but priests get "missal-toe" (it is also possible for the people in the pews to get "missalette-toe", so be careful) - Merry Christmas!

QUOTE OF THE WEEK

(All of the following quotes are from the mind and pen of our good friend, the late Joseph Sobran:)

"The progressives have found no substitute for virtue. They can only offer such morbid stopgaps as contraception, abortion, and euthanasia... Euthanasia is a fitting symbol: the last sacrament of a society that cannot aspire to heaven, but only to painless annihilation."

"As the state relieves us of our responsibilities to our parents and children, it increases our responsibilities to itself. You may divorce your spouse, desert (or abort) your children, and abandon your parents, but your duty to pay taxes is absolute. There is no divorce or separation from the welfare state, till death to you part (and even then, inheritance taxes will eat up much of your legacy)."

"Christ is still quoted after 2,000 years. His words have a unique power that set them off from merely human words. Even two removes from their original language, they still penetrate us and rule our consciences... They have a supernatural effect on anyone who is receptive to them... The words of Jesus, including those that Jefferson and the Jesus Seminar have blue-penciled, have unique permanence. They don't merely survive as aphoristic wisdom: they have authority in our hearts, even when we try to deny them."

ST. VINCENT de PAUL SOCIETY

What an awesome parish St. Angela's is! The response to the Advent Giving Tree was terrific. In addition to Our Lady of Perpetual Help Center many of the gifts were delivered to families that we have helped throughout the year. Your gift to the SVDP Society brought light into the darkness surrounding the heart of those living in poverty bringing them the real, lasting and deep joy of Christmas. We appreciate your support for the Food Drive and the Advent Giving Tree.

ROSES FOR LIFE WEEKEND

The weekend of Jan. 6/7, please find in your pew some small silk Roses for Life. Our Knights of Columbus have generously donated these roses to be used as a means of communicating from us, the parishioners of St. Angela Merici Parish, to Representative Lacy Clay and Senator Claire McCaskill, that we believe every human life deserves legal protection. Please sign a rose and drop it in a basket on your way out of church. If you wish to reach both legislators with your message, please sign two roses and then twist the stems together. Some of our parishioners will be in the lobby to collect them and will then carry them in the 45th Annual March for Life in Washington, D.C. Following the March our roses will be delivered to the offices of Representative Lacy Clay and Senator Claire McCaskill. May God bless you and please keep our pilgrims in your prayers!

QUILT RAFFLE

The winner of the Quilt was Sharon Taylor. Quilter's were able to donate $1100.00 for St. Vincent de Paul.

DEVELOPMENT OF THE UNBORN BABY—FOURTH MONTH

Your spiritually adopted baby's mother can finally feel the movements of her baby within her womb. By the time this fourth month is over your baby will be 6 inches long. His tiny heart has been beating since he was 21 days old. Now this strong little heart pumps 6 gallons of blood every day (picture 6 milk cartons—your baby's heart is a pumping miracle! Your baby is becoming stronger and he likes to turn somersaults. Your baby has lots of nice skin but not much fat to fill it out so he looks a little wrinkly. His skin is covered with vernix, a thick white cream which protects his skin from the salty amniotic fluid. Your baby's face is becoming prettier and he begins to resemble his parents.

The Daughters of St. Paul invite you.
