From The Desk of Msgr. Matthew Mitas:

REMEMBER THAT DECEMBER IS THE MONTH OF THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION AND JANUARY IS THE MONTH OF THE HOLY CHILDHOOD OF JESUS!

THE DIVINE MATERNITY OF MARY

Each year's very first day is given over to the holy Mother of God, and is such an important feast that, under normal circumstances, it is a holy day of obligation. Because, however, it falls on a Monday this year, the Church attaches no obligation to the faithful to attend Mass. Nonetheless, it is still a magnificent festival, one that is worthy of our Mass attendance. We will, of course, offer Mass on Monday, but since it is also a national holiday, we will honor our parish custom of having just the one Mass, and celebrate it at 9:00AM. So come all ye faithful, and begin your New Year right by honoring the Sinless Mother of the Almighty!

THE WHOLE PARISH THANKS YOU!

I'm going to state here in print what I already announced publicly at our Night Mass of Christmas Eve, namely, the gratitude of the whole parish to those who decorated our church, making it second only to the Cathedral as the most beautiful Christmas church in the archdiocese (and the Cathedral has the unfair advantage of already being one of the most beautiful buildings on earth!). I'm going to mention maestro Don Krause by name because it was his artistic vision that pulled it all together, but he was ably assisted by an army of helpers who made it all a reality. (That's just the way it is; Michelangelo gets all the credit for the Sistine Ceiling, and his many assistants' names are lost to history.) Great praise and thanks to them! We also give special thanks to our Choir and Musicians, our Lectors and Ushers, and to our Servers and Eucharistic Ministers. Last of all, we thank you, whose kindness and solicitude made it all possible, all to the greater glory of God at His Nativity!

YOUR OVERWEHLMING KINDESS, MY INADEQUATE GRATITUDE

Each year, the good people of St. Angela Merici Parish prove once again that not only are you the most thoughtful people in the archdiocese, but you are also the most generous. This is expressed over and over again in the ways that you respond to the monthly food collection for the St. Vincent de Paul Society (not to mention the monetary contributions and the thousands of hours spent in answering the calls for help), the special collections, the volunteerism that finds itself manifested in myriads of wonderful ways (most demonstrably in the beauty of our gardens), and the kindness with which you care for one another and welcome the stranger.

I was such a stranger when I came here in 2014, and you took in this weary vagabond, a veteran of many parishes all over the archdiocese, and made him feel at home. Your kindness to me this Christmas has been, yes, overwhelming and I deeply appreciate it. I have been loaded down with all kinds of presents and I can't thank you enough for them, but most of all for the kindness which they represent. I am honored to be your pastor.

I do have one small confession; I try to send 'thank you' notes to recognize gifts that I have received and I'm mostly reliable in getting them out in a (relatively) timely manner, but this year my record keeping has failed me and I lost my list of some of you donors. So if you don't get an acknowledgment from me expressing my gratitude, it's not because the gratitude isn't there, nor because I was too lazy to express it, but rather you should draw the correct inference that I was too boneheaded to keep good records! Thanks, and God bless you!

QUOTE OF THE WEEK

“(The Blessed Virgin Mary) defines the faith as nothing else does: Catholics who have an aversion to speaking of her are always on the way out of the Church, because she represent total humility and purity, the very opposites of the modern spirit. You can divide people into those she inspires and those she embarrasses...I don't understand how any Christian can deny her the special place the faith recognizes as hers. Her image alone is persuasive. What human being could have conceived of such a thing? And how could the Mother of God be any less than this?” - Joseph Sobran

(As we face the New Year, we tend to think about the future. Let's see what some of the "sages" of the past had to say about our chances of survival:)

“Civilization will end within 15 or 30 years unless immediate action is taken against problems facing mankind.” - Nobel laureate George Wald of Harvard, 1970

“The death rate will increase until at least 100-200 million per year will be starving to death during the next ten years...If I were a gambler, I would take even money that England will not exist in the year 2000...In ten years, all important animal life on earth will be extinct.” - Futurologist guru, Paul Ehrlich, also in 1970

“The threat of a new ice age must now stand alongside nuclear war as a likely source of wholesale death and misery for mankind.” - Nigel Calder, 1975

“Dr. S. Dillon Ripley, secretary of the Smithsonian, believes that in 25 years, somewhere between 75 and 80cent of all the species of living animals will be extinct.” - Senator Gaylord Nelson, also in 1970.

MARCH FOR LIFE 2018

This January, our parish will have 14 representatives participating in the 45th Annual National March for Life in Washington, DC. It is a very somber and yet hopeful event because hundreds of thousands participate every year. This year, because there will be no vigil Mass on New Year's Eve, we will not be hosting the usual dinner/party. We will, however, have a breakfast after the Masses on January 14 to support our pilgrims. We truly appreciate all you continue to do for us!

ROSES FOR LIFE WEEKEND

The weekend of Jan. 6/7, please find in your pew some small silk Roses for Life. Our Knights of Columbus have generously donated these roses to be used as a means of communicating from us, the parishioners of St. Angela Merici Parish, to Representative Lacy Clay and Senator Claire McCaskill, that we believe every human life deserves legal protection. Please sign a rose and drop it in a basket on your way out of church. If you wish to reach both legislators with your message, please sign two roses and then twist the stems together. Some of our parishioners will be in the lobby to collect them and will then carry them in the 45th Annual March for Life in Washington, D.C. Following the March our roses will be delivered to the offices of Representative Lacy Clay and Senator Claire McCaskill. May God bless you and please keep our pilgrims in your prayers!
