From The Desk of Msgr. Matthew Mitas:

EMEMBER THAT JULY IS THE MONTH OF CHRIST'S MOST PRECIOUS BLOOD AND AUGUST IS THE MONTH OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT!

ROOF WORK HAS BEGUN!

It all started this past Tuesday, when they first started to strip the old shingles off the facing side of the gym and it has continued in earnest ever since. Delayed by bad weather and back-ups from other work undone, the task of putting a new hat on our parish Grande Dame has finally commenced. I'm writing this on Wednesday, and, although it's possible the work will be completed when you read this, it's also quite likely that it won't. (I hope that at least the now-famous dip will have been already eliminated!) By the middle of this week, for sure, our parish church will be adorned with fragrant-sounding "heather blend" shingles. It should look very nice. The amount we've collected so far is just short of our $30,000 goal. Our thanks to all those whose generosity made it possible (and we're still taking up the collection).

SPEAKING OF THE MIDDLE OF THIS WEEK...

...that's when my hip replacement surgery is scheduled. I had originally been given an afternoon time slot on this Tuesday, but it was moved up to the very early morning. As I mentioned before, this is a replacement I originally had done in February of 2008. The friction points, apparently, have worn out in such a way as to pose a hazard to the surrounding tissues and so they need to be replaced. It can go either of two ways: first (and what I hoping for) is that they I only need to have the friction points replaced, and, if that's possible, second, they're have to tear out the old work and put in all new (which I'm hoping won't be necessary). In any case, I'm asking for your prayers. I don't know how long I'll be laid up; having been through this twice before already, I have some knowledge of how it goes, and, based on that, I hope to be back on the job, even if in limited capacity in about three weeks. Covering for me on the weekends will be my old friend, retired Air Force chaplain Fr. John Kovalcin. I hope to have many (if not all) the week day Masses covered, but that kind of help is harder to find. If we can't have a priest, then our sturdy deacon, Deacon Joseph Kroutil, will conduct Communion service.

AS WE ANNUALLY HONOR THE TRANSFIGURATION...

...we at St. Angela's also recall the great merger in 2005 when our parish merged not only with Transfiguration but also St. Christopher. And so it's time to celebrate our Catholic unity and brotherhood by having our annual Ice Cream Social after the 5:00PM Mass next Saturday (August 3) in the lunchroom. Plan on expressing your St. Angela spirit and take part (and invite back any old Trans or Christopher's people you know!)

AS WE ANNUALLY HONOR GOD THE FATHER

Our parish is the only one in the archdiocese to offer this special Mass on the first Sunday of August, and we will do it again next Sunday, August 4, at 1:30PM in our parish church. Because there currently is no specific text of Mass prayers for God the Father, the liturgy will be the same as the regular Sunday Mass (and so it fulfills your Sunday obligation). This feast began, as did the feast of the Divine Mercy, as a private revelation, in this case to Mother Eugenia Ravasio (d. 1990). I usually celebrate this Mass, but, owing to my surgery, Fr. Martin Mannion of the Archdiocese will substitute this year.

LET US ALSO HONOR THE PATRON SAINT OF BARBECUE...

...who, of course, is St. Lawrence the Martyr, owing to his own martyrdom by way of being barbecued. We are doing this, of course, facetiously, but in the spirit of the saint himself, who, as has been recorded in the lore and legend of St. Lawrence, is said to have quipped to his torturers who thrust him onto the spit, "You can turn me over now; I'm done on this side!" A fellow like that has got to be honored, and that Master of Barbecue, our parish's own Bill Johnson, along with Master Chef Don Krause, are going to do it up right! When? Next Saturday, August 10, starting at 5:30PM

QUIZ-A-CATHOLIC

This one will be a toughie: name the ten principles that underlie Catholic Social teaching:

Features:

CONTINUED

ANSWERS: 1. HUMAN DIGNITY, i.e., that, being made in God's image, every person is worthy of respect 2. RESPECT FOR HUMAN LIFE, i.e., that every human being, from conception to natural death, has a right to life 3. ASSOCIATION, i.e., that we are sacred, but also social, and so the family is the centerpiece of all human civilization 4. PARTICIPATION, i.e., that everybody has a right to the goods of society and must not be shut out from what is necessary for human life 5. PREFERENTIAL PROTECTION FOR THE POOR AND VULNERABLE, i.e., that the common good requires that society takes special care of those who cannot do so for themselves 6. SOLIDARITY, i.e., that, as members of one family, we are our "brother's keeper" 7. STEWARDSHIP, i.e., that we see ourselves not as owners of this planet, but rather as stewards (or managers) of what really belongs to God, and so we administer His goods in such a way as to effect His purpose 8. SUBSIDIARITY, i.e., that the reach of government should be limited and that what can be done at a lower (and/or more local) level must be done at that level by people who are closer and more engaged in the situation (tyrants always ignore this principle) 9. HUMAN EQUALITY, i.e., that though we differ in talents and abilities, we are all equal in rights 10. THE COMMON GOOD, i.e., that social conditions must be such that everyone has the chance to develop his full potential and realize his human dignity

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY

Because of the extended heat spell that the area has been experiencing, we have had a high number of “neighbors” who have requested assistance with their Ameren bills. This has caused a severe drain on our funds so we appreciate those parishioners who continue to contribute to the SVDP Society in the brown envelopes or the SVDP parish envelope. The SVDP collection box located near the gym has been receiving many donations and we are grateful for that. The drivers who empty the box have asked us to mark the bags of non-saleable clothing donations as “recycle for balers”. Thanks to everyone who contributed to the Food Drive last week. The overall donations have been decreasing so we are very appreciative of those who continue to support this ministry.
