From The Desk of Msgr. Matthew Mitas:

REMEMBER THAT AUGUST IS THE MONTH OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT!

ASSUMPTION

This coming Saturday, August 15, is the Feast of Our Lady's Assumption. Normally, it would be a holy day of obligation, but since it falls on a Saturday this year, it is still a very big feast day, but there is no obligation to attend Mass attached to it. Nevertheless, we will still have a special Mass for the great feast day next Saturday at 8:00AM. Let us honor the Sinless One on her heavenly festival!

I AM SCAM, SCAM I AM

That's probably what Dr. Suess would have written had he lived in the era of hacked e-mails and co-opted computers. Apparently, somebody has hijacked my name again and is reaching out to certain parishioners sending out bogus messages, purportedly from me, asking you to respond. I assure you, these are not from me, and I would not be the least bit offended if you didn't respond to them. (In fact, if you did, I would probably lose respect for you for not recognizing the flim-flam!) Be advised!

OUR NEW ARCHBISHOP

Abp.-elect Mitchell Rozanski will be formally installed as our tenth archbishop at a special Mass in the Cathedral-Basilica at 2:00PM on the Feast of St. Louis, Tuesday, August 25. This Mass will not be open to the public (the Wuhan Flu, don'tcha know) but it will be televised live on ESPN and on the Cathedral's own live-streaming. Please pray for him!

QUIZ-A-CATHOLIC

Music constitutes a very large and significant portion of the Church's divine liturgy, and rightly so. The ancient maxim is: "He who sings prays twice". Our Archdiocese has contributed a lot to the liturgical music scene, especially in the last fifty years, with certain individuals, lay, clergy, and religious, taking part. See how many of these contributors you know:

1. Taking an ancient melody, this local pastor and great liturgist added new words and gave us "To Jesus Christ Our Sovereign King".
2. Also taking an old, familiar tune, this prolific author and great pastor gave us the Trinitarian hymn, "God Father Praise and Glory".
3. This former seminarian (Prep South and Cardinal Glennon College, and Kenrick) gave us many of the most popular songs of the "guitar Mass" era, including "Sons of God" and "Allelu".
4. This group of five Jesuit scholastics at St. Louis U. in the 1970's & 80's gave us many of the songs that are frequently sung in Catholic worship to this day, such as "Sing to the Mountains" and "Glory and Praise to Our God". What did they call themselves?
5. Name as many of the men in #4 above as you can.
6. This former Vincentian seminarian in Perryville gave us the beautiful, "Here I am".
7. Not nearly as well-known or popular as any of the above, this group of five young St. Louis U. divinity students from a missionary order nonetheless achieved a small measure notoriety and fame in the heyday of the 1960's.

ANSWERS: 1. Msgr. Martin B. Hellriegel of Holy Cross Parish in Baden 2. Msgr. John Rothensteiner, author of the first great history of the Archdiocese of St. Louis. 3. Ray Repp 4. "The St. Louis Jesuits" 5. Bob Duffors, SJ, John Foley, SJ, Roc O'Connor, SJ, Dan Schutte, and Tim Manion 6. Rory Cooney 7. The Montfort Singers (aka, the "Montfort Mission Singers")

"I am on a lifelong path to a more personal relationship to Jesus and I have found the blessed Mother and the rosary to be a beautiful way to do this. I am passionate about assisting and motivating others to live healthy and happy lives in mind, body, and spirit.." Patti Alvaraz, Instructor/parishioner at St. Norbert's Parish

It is with very grateful hearts that we say “Goodbye” to Diana Skubic as a member of our St. Vincent de Paul Conference. Diana has been a shining star in our conference and a wonderful spirit of Christ to our neighbors in need. Ray, her husband, also has our gratitude.

If you are sitting at home thinking about how you can help. Here is an opportunity! Our St. Vincent de Paul Conference has the opportunity you are waiting for! We are in need of a secretary for our meetings. We only have one meeting a month on the second Tuesday of the month at 7PM. You will be able to enjoy the company of our Vincentians and sit and take notes. If you can, we would ask that you would type them and send them through email to our members. No problem if you cannot type, someone else can type your notes and send them.

Don't miss this great opportunity to give back and serve God through serving your neighbor.

If you want to grab this awesome opportunity email mak@stangelam.org or call 838-6565, ext. 101

For the month of August, the St. Vincent de Paul will not have their food drive, because of the Covid 19 virus.

Thank you so much
