From The Desk of Msgr. Matthew Mitas:

REMEMBER THAT SEPTEMBER IS THE MONTH OF THE SEVEN SORROWS OF OUR LADY!

CALLING ALL CONVERTS!

Our RCIA classes for 2021 are about to begin and we need to form the class. If you, or anyone you know, would like to become Catholic, contact me ASAP!

LIGHTS! CAMERA! ACTION!

At the start of the Wuhan Flu “pandemic” (when all the parishes shut down), we jerry-rigged a camera on a table in the front of church so that we could “live-stream” our Masses to the faithful who were prohibited from attending in person. The system works, but it’s not great, but so many watched (and continue to do so) that we are looking into mounting a permanent camera so that the practice may continue, for the sake of the home-bound, after we’re declared “all safe” again. Right now, the system is operational, but not really of tip-top quality of either picture or sound. Besides, there are wires all over the floor and they do constitute some kind of a risk of tripping and falling. With the new system, those watching at home would be able to see and hear everything that goes on through a camera that would be mounted in the back of church (and obscured from view) and hard-wired into the sound system. It could even be used to video-record weddings, First Communions, etc. It looks like we’re going to need about $6,000 to cover the cost of the equipment and installation/service. Our crack maintenance and I.T. crew will do as much of the work as they can. So, I’m looking for donors. If you would like to be one, please make out a check for the amount you’d like to contribute and get it to me at your convenience. I will then subsequently rise and call you blessed and the angels of heaven will rejoice!

THE MASS AT PIPER’S CHAPEL ON THE FEAST OF THE HOLY CROSS

That, of course, would be a week from Labor Day on Sept. 14. This is the plan: meet at SAM at 5:00PM that day, and carpool over to their place in O’Fallon/Cottleville for Mass at 6:00. After Mass, those who wish may join us at the Madison Café (close to the chapel) for dinner at 7:00. You have to sign up on the sheet in the lunchroom and put an X on the line next to your name if you’re joining us for dinner (the restaurant needs a count). Hope you can join us!

TENTATIVE BARBECUE

Our Men’s Club’s “tentative” barbecue is less tentative and more definite now, so look to join us on Sept. 26. Our guys can really barbecue and they’ll be serving from 1:00pm until after the 5:00PM Mass. They’ll have carry-outs, and dine-in for the adventurous. (Actually, since the CDC has just announced that the death totals for the Wuhan Flu were exaggerated, and that 94% of the “Covid deaths” were actually caused by a number of comorbidities, this “pandemic” is much less of a threat than what it used to be...sorry, but somebody had to point that out!). Let’s get back in business and enjoy some good chow together!

QUIZ-A-CATHOLIC

Let’s try something different, for a change. I’m going to ask you questions, the answers to which every Catholic should know. The difference, however, is that I will not know that answers to these questions, but you should! So, if you don’t know the answers to the questions, go find them, because it really is something you should know!

1. What is the date of your baptism?
2. Where were you baptized?
3. Who was the minister (priest/deacon/nurse, etc.) of your baptism?

Features:

CONTINUED

4. Who were/are your godparents?
 5. What is the date of your First Confession (and who was the priest)?
 6. What is the date of your Confirmation? (If you haven't been confirmed yet, by all means come and see me ASAP!)
 7. In what church were you confirmed?
 8. Who was the minister (bishop/priest) of your Confirmation?
 9. Who was your sponsor of Confirmation?
 10. What is your Confirmation Name?
- BONUS QUESTION: What is your wedding anniversary?*

ANSWERS: I don't know...that's your job!

QUOTE OF THE WEEK

"There was, it seemed to me, a built-in propensity in the liberal worldview whereby the opposite of what was intended came to pass...The efforts that men make to bring about their own happiness, their own ease of life, their own self-indulgence, will in due course produce the opposite." - Malcolm Muggeridge

WORD OF THE WEEK

ONCETHMUS: (n.) braying, as of an animal, as in: "The oncethmus of most politicians is far worse than that given off by any beast!"
