From The Desk of Msgr. Matthew Mitas:

REMEMBER THAT JUNE IS THE MONTH OF THE MOST SACRED HEART OF JESUS!

PENTECOST, THE HOLY TRINITY, AND CORPUS CHRISTI

Today, of course, we celebrate the great feast of the coming of the promised Holy Spirit, Pentecost. This feast also marks the founding of the Catholic Church by Our Savior, Jesus Christ, which is still sustained by the constant inspiration of the Holy Ghost, and will be, as Jesus promised, until the end of time. Along with that, on the next two Sundays, the Church bids us to celebrate the two greatest mysteries of our faith, namely, the Holy Trinity (Trinity Sunday) and Christ's Real Presence in the Blessed Sacrament (Corpus Christi)...

...AND SPEAKING OF CORPUS CHRISTI...

...don't forget the restored, annual, community-wide Corpus Christi Procession through the streets of Old Town Florissant, taking the half-mile-long route from Sacred Heart, down hill, all the way to the ancient St. Ferdinand Shrine, following the path established by the first settlers of the region in the 19th century. Like last year, it will start in the cool of the evening of what will be just about the longest day of the year, at 7:00pm in Sacred Heart, with benedictions, prayers and hymns along the pilgrim path. Transportation back to Sacred Heart and refreshments, too, will be available at the Shrine. Come. Bring the whole family. Spread the word...it gets bigger and better every year!

WONDERS OF THE WORLD

I believe that it was history's first historian, Herodotus, who concocted the first list of the seven marvels, or "wonders" of the ancient world. This was composed to be an early version of the Fodor's Guides for tourists, detailing the sites that a well-rounded individual "must visit" and the sights that the savvy traveler "must see". Since the ancient peoples considered gardens to be earthly manifestations of heaven (and the word "paradise" does mean a "walled-in garden"), it's not surprising that a garden made his short list. I speak of the famous Hanging Gardens of Nebuchadnezzar. But if old Herodotus were alive today and still touring the world looking for astonishing things to behold, I have to think that even he would be impressed by the richness, color, and tasteful design of our beautiful parish gardens, so lovingly and skillfully cared for by our green-thumbed horticulturalists. They look better and better all the time! But what would Herodotus call them: "The Blossoming Flowers of Florissant"? "The Vivacious Verdure of Black Jack"? Or maybe "The Vibrant Vegetation of Shovel-town"? No, we'll just call them "Shaw's Garden North", and let the southern version of it (and old Nebuchadnezzar, too!) grind their teeth in envy!

QUIZ-A-CATHOLIC

With the historic Corpus Christi Procession about to take place, let's make this quiz on local Church history. See whether you can name:

1. The oldest parish in the Archdiocese of St. Louis.
2. The oldest church structure in the Archdiocese.
3. The oldest parish in the City of St. Louis.
4. The oldest parish in St. Louis County.
5. The oldest parish in St. Charles County.
6. The oldest parish and church in the St. Louis metropolitan area.
7. The first parochial grade school in the Archdiocese.
8. The oldest still-functioning parochial grade school in the Archdiocese.
9. The first bishop of the Diocese of St. Louis.
10. The first Archbishop of the Archdiocese of St. Louis

QUOTE OF THE WEEK

“Eviscerating “Roe” would upend lives’, editorialized the Washington Post. Better to upend lives than to end lives.”

“If you’re employed by the City of Boston and your child is aborted, you get 12 weeks of paid parental leave. To do what? Conceive and murder another child, and get rewarded with another three-month vacation?”

“VP Kamala Harris says ‘women will die’ if Roe v. Wade is pared down or overturned. ‘I don’t mean to sound alarmist, I mean this: Women will die.’ Millions of women have already died with Roe in place, Kamala – very young women.” – (all quotes from James G. Bruen)

WORD OF THE WEEK

KATZENJAMMER (n.) hangover; uproar; clamor, as in: “There’s a lot of howling from the Culture of Death on the possible overturn of the infamous Roe v. Wade, but it’s all a bunch of katzenjammer!”
