From The Desk of Msgr. Matthew Mitas:

REMEMBER THAT JULY IS THE MONTH OF THE MOST PRECIOUS BLOOD OF JESUS!

BE ADVISED

Because of the vagaries of the bulletin publishing business, I am having to write this column on June 20, almost three weeks in advance. Though I don't have Padre Pio's clairvoyance and foreknowledge of things to come, I'll give this my best shot

ALL THINGS NEW - THE CHANGES

Now that we've had the first organizational meeting (actually it was a couple of weeks ago on June 20, but, as I said earlier, I'm having to write these bulletin columns weeks in advance) I can finally tell you some of what is going to happen. Basically, it's this:

- A) There will be no changes before Aug. 1.
- B) After Aug. 1, there will be an adjustment of the Mass schedules of all three parishes
- C) Daily and weekend Masses will still be celebrated at all three parishes

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

It was the Gospel on June 18: "Beg the Master of the Harvest to send out laborers to gather His harvest." Come for the last hour of Adoration on Tuesdays and pray. God is already calling our young ones; pray that they will have the wherewithal to answer His call!

QUIZ-A-CATHOLIC

Hymns make up an important part of our Catholic worship, and the really good, Catholic songs, the hymns of our youth, are a big part of our own personal faith and worship. Aristotle realized the power of music to bypass the brain and go straight to the heart, which is why he feared it! A really good hymn goes right to the soul, edifying and enriching it. I'm giving here a list of old Catholic stand-by's, all of which were composed by famous theologians. It will be your task to identify the artists who created these Catholic classics:

1. "To Jesus Christ, Our Sovereign King"
2. "Tantum, Ergo, Sacramentum"
3. "O Salutaris Hostia"
4. "Salve, Regina"
5. "God Father, Praise and Glory" (O Most Holy Trinity)
6. "A Mighty Fortress is Our God"
7. "Amazing Grace"
8. "Christ the Lord is Risen Today"
9. "All Creatures of Our God and King"
10. "Joyful, Joyful We Adore Thee"

ANSWERS: 1. (words by) Msgr. Martin B. Hellriegel, long-time pastor of Holy Cross Parish in Baden 2. St. Thomas Aquinas 3. Aquinas, again 4. Hermannus Contractus (okay, so he's not a particularly famous theologian, but we should know him, anyway!) 5. Msgr. John Rothensteiner (another priest of the Archdiocese of St. Louis) 6. Martin Luther (he's not orthodox, but he is famous) 7. John Newton (a former slave trader who reformed his life after reading Thomas a Kempis' "Imitation of Christ") 8. Charles Wesley (another protestant) 9. St. Francis of Assisi (his "Canticum of the Creatures" formed the basis of this hymn) 10. (music by) Ludwig v. Beethoven

QUOTES OF THE WEEK

"The progressives have found no substitute for virtue. They can only offer such morbid stopgaps as abortion, contraception, and euthanasia...Euthanasia is a fitting symbol: the last sacrament of a society that cannot aspire to heaven, but only to a painless annihilation." - Joseph Sobran

"As the state relieves us of our responsibilities to our parents and children, it increases our responsibilities to itself. You may divorce your spouse, desert (or abort) your children, and abandon your parents, but your duty to pay taxes is absolute. There is no divorce or separation from the welfare state, till death do you part (and even then, inheritance taxes will eat up much of your legacy)." - Sobran, again

"My mother gave me the greatest gift a mother can give her child. She gave me the gift of my Catholic faith. This has had a profound impact on my career and it has given me patience, compassion, and hope. (As Pope Benedict says): 'One who has hope lives differently'. Above all, my religion is a source of personal strength." - Hall of Famer Mike Piazza in his induction speech, 2016
