MASS INTENTIONS

If you would like to have a Mass celebrated for a loved one—deceased or living—contact Linda at the Parish Office at 314-838-6565 or stop by the office. The stipend is $10 per Mass. There are infinite graces that flow from the Sacrifice of the Mass which benefits one's soul. The special ministerial fruits of the Mass are applied to the particular intention of the Mass. We have MANY open dates and times! The tradition of offering Masses for others, particularly the dead, originated in the very early Church. We have Mass Cards available in the office you can give to the family of a deceased person or Special Intention Cards for living, for a special occasion or for healing.

Pondering With Deacon George:

"The seed sown on rich soil is the one who hears the word and understands it, who indeed bears and yields a hundred or sixty or thirty-fold."

This weekend we are invited to reflect on the power of God's Word and the condition of our hearts. In the first reading, the prophet Isaiah compares God's Word to rain and snow that come down from heaven and make the earth fertile. God's Word is never empty or useless; it always has the power to bring life, growth, healing, and transformation.

In the Gospel, Jesus tells the parable of the Sower. The seed is the Word of God, and the different kinds of soil represent the different ways people receive that Word. Some hearts are like the path, where the Word is heard but not understood. Some are like rocky ground, where faith begins with joy but quickly fades when difficulties come. Some are like thorny soil, where worries, distractions, and the desire for worldly things choke the Word. But some hearts are like rich soil, open and ready to receive God's Word, allowing it to grow and bear fruit.

This parable challenges us to ask ourselves: What kind of soil is my heart today? We may discover that at different moments in life, our hearts resemble each type of soil. Sometimes we are distracted and fail to listen. Sometimes trials weaken our faith. Sometimes worries and material concerns take over. Yet Jesus does not tell this parable to discourage us. He tells it to remind us that our hearts can change. With prayer, humility, repentance, and openness to grace, the soil of our hearts can become fertile again.

The Sower is generous. He scatters the seed everywhere, even in places that seem unlikely to produce fruit. This shows the generosity of God. He continues to speak to us, guide us, forgive us, and call us closer to Himself. God never gives up on us. His Word keeps coming to us through Scripture, the Eucharist, prayer, the Church, and the people He places in our lives.

This Sunday, we are invited to cultivate the soil of our hearts. We can remove the stones of pride, pull out the thorns of anxiety and selfishness, and make room for God's Word to take root. If we allow God to work in us, even small seeds of faith can produce an abundant harvest.

May we open our hearts to receive and act on God's word in our lives,
Deacon George

SHARING CHRIST'S MERCY THROUGH THE UNIVERSAL CHURCH

The Bishop Iruthayaraj Foundation, established in Columbus, Ohio, in 2024, honors the Christ-centered legacy of Bishop Savarinathen Iruthayaraj and serves vulnerable communities through education, healthcare, pastoral care, and missionary support. With the support of leaders including Bishop Earl K. Fernandes and Archbishop Antonysamy Savarimuthu, the foundation helps strengthen communities in need as part of the Church's shared missionary mission.

This work is both practical and spiritual. Through supported efforts, 5,000+ children receive education annually, 200+ youth have received vocational support, and 50+ parish communities have been strengthened. The mission also helps provide rural clinics, clean water projects, support for seminarians and altar servers, and sacred spaces for worship and formation. In Zambia, a borehole project brought clean water to a community where there had been no water for 20 miles, and schoolchildren were seen drinking clean water for the first time. In Ayalpatti, India, the mission has helped support parish improvements including chapel and altar work, presbytery and sacred space development, and the Blessed Mother's grotto. Jesus teaches us in Matthew 25:40 that what we do for the least, we do for Him. Your parish's support is a real participation in the universal Church's mission of mercy. Help is needed now, because many communities still face hardship, under-resourced facilities, and ongoing vulnerability. Through prayer and generosity, we can stand with them in Christ.

ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL Update

A huge Thank You to all those who contributed to the Annual Catholic Appeal.

All three parishes reached their goals this year. The results are below.

Thank you to Paul and Cathy Ramey, Rose Wesolowski, Bess and Mike Arends, and Ann Schwanz who led the effort at each of their parishes.

Each of the three parishes have received grants this past year which were funded by the Annual Catholic Appeal.

There is still time to make a pledge to this year's appeal. If you are interested in making a pledge, please call the parish office at your parish.

Blessings and Thank You again.
